

AAAE ACCREDITATION/CERTIFICATION ACADEMY

In order to assist Executive Members of the SEC-AAAE with their continuing education, the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives offers internal scholarships to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy sponsored by the South Central Chapter of AAAE and the American Association of Airport Executives.

The Academy is held twice yearly and schedules may be viewed at www.aaae.org under the heading of Meetings and Conferences.

To qualify for a scholarship to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy, the Executive Member must:

1. Be a fully registered Executive Candidate with the AAAE Accreditation Program.
2. Have a completed thesis that has been accepted and approved by the American Association of Airport Executives.
3. Be in good standing with the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives.
4. Submit a one-page document to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary stating his/her interest in the AAE Program, any unusual need for financial assistance and an explanation as to why he/she should be selected for the scholarship.
5. Provide proof of attendance to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary following completion of the course.

The SEC-AAAE Scholarship to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy provides tuition to the Academy only. Travel expenses, food, housing and all other expenses are the responsibility of the Executive Candidate attending the Academy.

The SEC-AAAE Scholarship to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy is approved administratively. To apply, forward Items 1-4 of the aforementioned documentation to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary at the following address:

Robert C. Brammer
SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary
8712 Caspiana Lane
North Charleston, South Carolina 29420

If approved, scholarship payments will be made directly to AAAE on behalf of the attendee prior to the Executive Candidate's attendance at the Academy. The Executive Candidate is responsible for providing proof of attendance to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary immediately following completion of the course.

A maximum of two scholarships will be approved per fiscal year.

Please allow 30 days for processing.

AAAE ACE PROGRAM

(Pending Approval by SEC-AAAE Board of Directors)

The American Association of Airport Executives has introduced four focused programs to benefit airport personnel at small, medium and large hub airports across the United States. These programs, known as the Airport Certified Employee (ACE) Programs, provide any AAAE member (with the exception of students) with the opportunity to obtain a through and up-to-date education in four disciplines:

- Airfield Lighting Maintenance

http://www.aaae.org/members/220_training_certifications/150_ace_program/220_airfield_lighting_maintenance/

- Airfield Operations

http://www.aaae.org/220_training_certifications/150_ace_program/100_operations/

- Security

http://www.aaae.org/220_training_certifications/150_ace_program/300_security/

- Communications

http://www.aaae.org/220_training_certifications/150_ace_program/400_communications/

Those individuals that pass a written exam will achieve the distinguished ACE designation. For more information on each program, including course content, cost and enrollment, please click on the appropriate links.

In order to assist Executive Members of the SEC-AAAE with their continuing education, the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives offers internal five-day Review Course Scholarships to the AAAE ACE Program.

The ACE Review Course Programs are offered numerous times throughout the year. To qualify for a scholarship to the AAAE ACE Review Course Programs, the SEC-AAAE Executive Member must:

1. Register with AAAE to attend the ACE Program of choice.
2. Be in good standing with the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives.
3. Submit a one-page document to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary stating his/her interest in the ACE Program, any unusual need for financial assistance and an explanation as to why he/she should be selected for the scholarship.

- 4. Provide proof of attendance to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary immediately following completion of the course.

SEC-AAAE Review Course Scholarships for the AAAE ACE Program provides tuition to the program only. Travel expenses, food, housing and all other expenses are the responsibility of the attendee.

SEC-AAAE Review Course Scholarships for the AAAE ACE Programs are approved administratively. To apply, forward items 1-3 of the aforementioned documentation to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary at the following address:

Robert C. Brammer
SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary
8712 Caspiana Lane
North Charleston, South Carolina 29420

If approved, scholarship payments will be made directly to AAAE on behalf of the attendee prior to attendance at the ACE Review Course Program. The attendee is responsible for providing proof of attendance to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary immediately following completion of the course.

A maximum of two scholarships will be approved per fiscal year.

Please allow 30 days for processing.

AAAE CERTIFIED MEMBER (C.M.) PROGRAM

(Pending Approval by SEC-AAAE Board of Directors)

In order to assist Executive and Corporate Members of the SEC-AAAE with their continuing education, the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives offers internal scholarships to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy in order to prepare candidates for the AAAE Certified Member (C.M.) Program written test.

This designation is a useful credential for individuals seeking employment within the airport management profession, for professionals interacting with airport executives and for airport personnel who may not be interested in undertaking the full Accredited Airport Executive (AAE) process.

Any AAAE member is eligible to participate in the program. SEC-AAAE Executive, Corporate, Participating and Associate Members who are also members of AAAE are eligible for the scholarship.

Those individuals that pass the Certified Member written exam will achieve the distinguished C.M. designation. For additional information on the C.M. program including course content, cost and enrollment, click on the following link:

http://www.aaae.org/members/200_professional_certifications/175_certified_member_program/

The C.M. Program is a self-study course and testing is offered numerous times throughout the year and by proxy. In order to better prepare for the test, some individuals may opt to attend the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy sponsored by the South Central Chapter of AAAE and the American Association of Airport Executives. To qualify for a SEC-AAAE scholarship to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy, the SEC-AAAE member must:

1. Register with AAAE as a Certified Member candidate.
2. Be in good standing with the Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives.
3. Submit a one-page document to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary stating his/her interest in the C.M. Program, any unusual need for financial assistance and an explanation as to why he/she should be selected for the scholarship.
4. Provide proof of attendance to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary following completion of the course.

The SEC-AAAE Scholarship to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy provides tuition to the Academy only. Travel expenses, food, housing and all other expenses are the responsibility of the Certified Member candidate attending the Academy.

The SEC-AAAE Scholarship to the AAAE Accreditation/Certification Academy is approved administratively. To apply, forward items 1-3 of the aforementioned documentation to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary at the following address:

Robert C. Brammer
SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary
8712 Caspiana Lane
North Charleston, South Carolina 29420

If approved, scholarship payments will be made directly to AAAE on behalf of the attendee prior to the C.M. candidate's attendance at the Academy. The C.M. candidate is responsible for providing proof of attendance to the SEC-AAAE Executive Secretary immediately following completion of the course.

A maximum of two scholarships will be approved per fiscal year.

Please allow 30 days for processing.